ALLIES, ARISE!

Words & Music by Frederick S. Hyde
Y.M.C.A.College
Springfield, Mass.

Price 25 cents

ALLIES, ARISE

"Dedicated to the Ninth War Work Group"

Written and composed by FREDERICK S. HYDE

March time
VOICE PIANO
mf
1. We've a job that we must do, Tho' we did not
2. They have hurled their boast - ing taunt "Con-quer us or stacc.
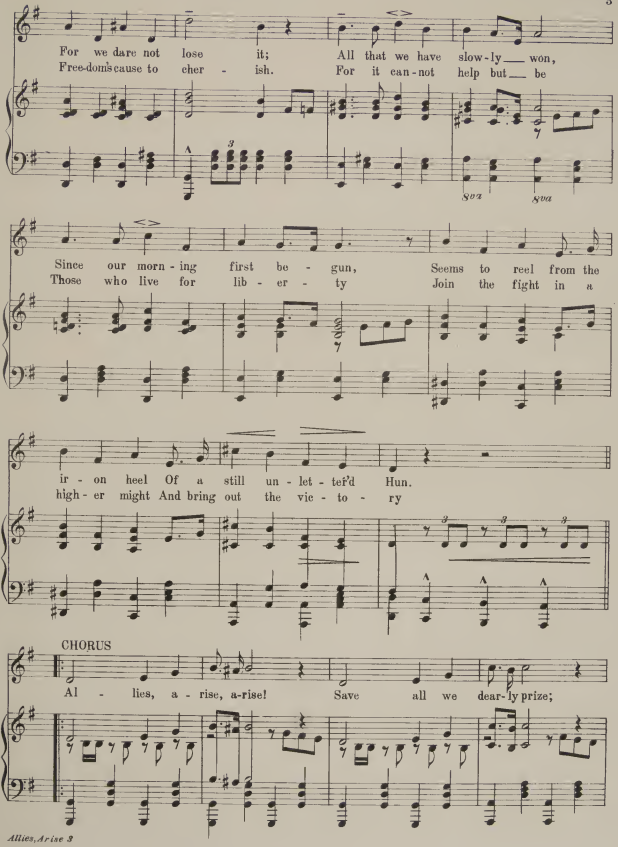
choose it, 'Tis a fight we must put thru,
per - - ish!' Cheer - ful - ly we take the vaunt,

Copyright, 1918, by Frederick S. Hyde



For we dare not lose it; All that we have slow-ly won, Free-dom's cause to cher - ish. For it can-not help but be 8va
8va
Since our morn - ing first be - gun, Seems to reel from the
Those who live for lib - er - ty Join the fight in a ir - on heel Of a still un - let - ter'd Hun.
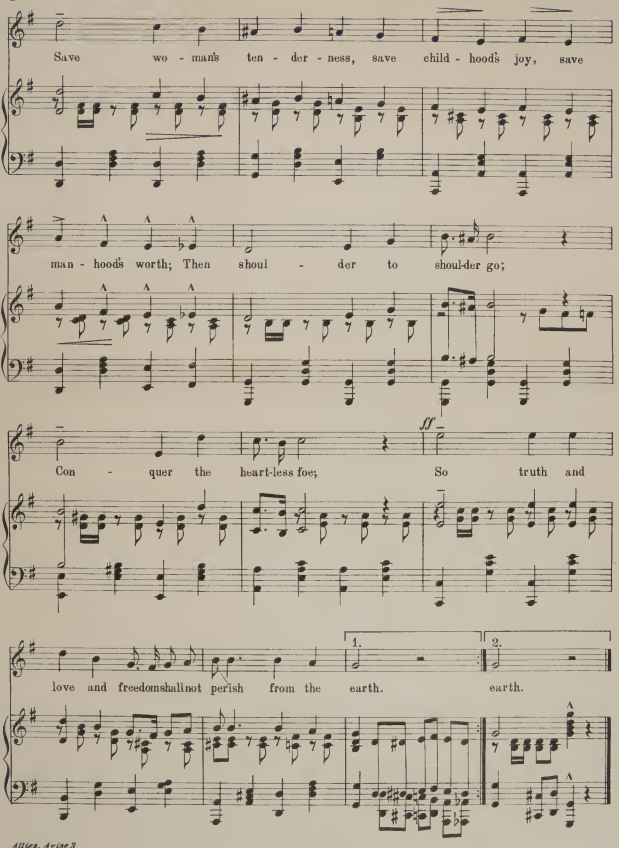
high - er might And bring out the vic - to - ry
CHORUS
Al - lies, a - rise, a-rise! Save all we dear-ly prize;



Save wo - man's ten - der - ness, save child - hood's joy, save man - hood's worth; Then shoul - der to shoul-der go;
ff
Con - quer the heart-less foe; So truth and love and freedomshallnot perish from the earth.
1.
2.
earth.